

Michael Aird, MLC
Treasurer

Thursday, 15 May 2008

Government committed to broadband competition

Treasurer Michael Aird has welcomed today's comments by the owners of the Basslink optic fibre Cityspring that they are committed to improving broadband competition in Tasmania.

"This announcement is a positive step and the Government remains open to constructive negotiations with Cityspring.

"The Government's objective is unchanged.

"We seek to deliver to the Tasmanian community a truly open access network with mainland comparable pricing to improve broadband choice and services in the State."

Contact: Rod Scott 6233 2170

Further information: Tasmanian Government Communications Unit
Phone: (03) 6233 6573